

November 3rd, 2002

To the Honorable Commissioners of the FCC,

I am writing to you to comment on Docket No. 02-277, The Biennial Review of the FCC's broadcast media ownership rules. I am in support of retaining all the FCC rules in question.

Please do not allow the few large media corporations to become even fewer in number while still retaining their current market size or increasing their market size.

In the last few years, I have sensed that many of the large media corporations have become harder to distinguish from one another. The major television channels, and radio stations, appear to be slanted in the same direction (for the exception of PBS and NPR).

Please give us the true freedom of choice and retain the FCC rules in question.

Thank you,

Eric Richardson
